EXPAND YOUR UNDERSTANDING ABOUT HEDGE FUNDS

MFA is the trade association for the global alternative investment community. We represent the interests of our members – professionals in hedge funds, funds of funds, and managed futures funds – and their investors.

Today, 65% percent of global hedge fund assets are held by institutional investors – public and private pensions, university endowments, and non-profit foundations.

MFA provides educational resources for policy makers, regulators, professionals, investors, and the media.

HEDGE FUNDS 101: MFA's introduction to hedge funds offers background information on the industry and its investors.
