MFA Statement on CFTC Commissioner Wetjen

Managed Funds Association President and CEO Richard H. Baker released the following statement after U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commissioner Mark Wetjen announced he would leave the Commission at the end of this month:

“On behalf of MFA and our Members, I would like to thank Commissioner Wetjen for his service,” Baker said. “The CFTC has undertaken a tremendous workload since the financial crisis, as they began implementing the Dodd-Frank Act. Commissioner Wetjen has played an integral role in that process, including serving as Acting Chair of the Commission. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

“MFA looks forward to working with the next Commissioner to advance our shared goals of fair and efficient markets for all investors.”
